

Second Conditional sentences

- Unreal / hypothetical situations in THE PRESENT TIME
- We use the PAST SIMPLE TENSE to talk about the present

Hypothetical/Unreal CONDITION:

If I WERE in the sea full of jellyfish,
(Am I in the sea now? No, I AM NOT)

Hypothetical/Unreal CONSEQUENCE:

I WOULD SCREAM

If I WERE in the sea full of jellyfish, I WOULD SCREAM.

IF + Subject + PAST SIMPLE,

Subject + WOULD + Infinitive

- After "I" we can use WAS or WERE

More examples

- If I didn't have a gun, I wouldn't go near a lion.
- If I had more money, I'd do a safari

Compare

First Conditional	Second Conditional
If I you pay, you will get what you want (possible)	If I had more money, I would travel more (but I don't have any money)